Foreign Educational Institutions Bill, 2010

Sought to allow foreign universities to operate in India; it lapsed without becoming law, so 2015 still ran on UGC twinning and collaboration rules.

UGC and AICTE

Statutory regulators for universities and technical programmes; any foreign campus still needs a clear Indian legal umbrella.

NAAC and NBA

National accreditation bodies for general and technical programmes; quality signalling remains uneven across affiliated colleges.

IIT and IIM core

A small public elite already competes globally in patches; the quality problem is the long tail of State and private colleges.

Student mobility

Large numbers of Indians study abroad each year; a well-licensed campus can retain some of that demand if quality is real.
