Potter Stewart

A Justice of the United States Supreme Court; the line is used in public ethics to split legal power from moral rightness.

Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988

The principal Union criminal statute on bribery by public servants; it cannot replace the first education Kalam named.

A.P.J. Abdul Kalam

His public teaching repeatedly tied a knowledge society to character in family and school, not only to laboratories.

Constitutional morality

The habit of holding power to the Constitution's values even when popular feeling or a legal loophole would allow more.

Opportunity cost of success

What was given up - truth, a forest, a child's care, a fair tender - is part of the ethical audit of any win.
