Speaking order

Indian administrative law expects a reasoned decision that a person can challenge; a model score is not by itself a reason.

DPDP Act, 2023

India's Digital Personal Data Protection law sets a statutory floor for how personal data may be used, including by public bodies in many settings.

Human in the loop

The practice of keeping a named officer responsible for high-stakes automated recommendations, especially welfare, policing and health.

Kant's end-not-means

Persons must not be treated only as instruments; a welfare algorithm that discards a life to clean a dashboard fails this test.

Gandhi's talisman

Recall the face of the poorest person who will bear the decision; useful when a model has never met that person.

Role morality

Duties that attach to an office - judge, doctor, DM - and that a private interest cannot cancel.
